

Current conditions at I-29/I-480/West Broadway Interchange

Reconstruction will eliminate outdated left exits

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

The I-29/I-480/West Broadway System Interchange project will address capacity needs, improve safety, and correct functional design issues at this location and at adjacent interchanges 41st Street, North 35th Street, Avenue G and 9th Avenue. Project benefits:

- Provides direct access to West Broadway from I-29 via one-way frontage roads
- Efficient and safe vehicle movement on I-480 and I-29
- Reduced motorist lane changes

The I-29/I-480/West Broadway System Interchange project includes the area of I-29 north of the Union Pacific Railroad Bridge to a point just west of North 25th Street along with the I-480 corridor to the Iowa side of the Missouri River crossing. A final preferred alternative was selected in July 2017 (See Final EA, July 2017), which provides direct access to West Broadway from I-29 via one-way frontage roads. Iowa DOT is in the process of obtaining right of way for the construction project and drafting final design of this interchange. Construction is anticipated to begin in spring 2021.

An interim project was completed in 2016/2017 to improve access to Playland Park and River's Edge development area north of the I-480 interchange. This project extended Benson Street from Avenue D to Avenue B along with pavement marking channelization at the existing 40th Street interchange with I-480. The project provides localized operational improvements and alternate accessibility during future construction.
